Section 3 – Terms and Conditions

Eligibility

Students must be enrolled at Miami State High School and demonstrate a very high level of academic achievement, behaviour and effort across all subject areas. This means students not currently enrolled at Miami State High are also required to complete the relevant Enrolment paperwork as part of the application Process.

A written application including the two most recent academic reports and a practical trial must be completed for the application to be considered.

Maintaining of Positions in Pillar Programs

Student performance is monitored regularly. Ongoing participation in Excellence Academy pillar programs is determined through continued high performance and exemplarily effort and behaviour. To maintain one's position, in the Excellence Academy, students must meet the Excellence Academy ACE Principles set out in the Excellence Academy Student/Parent Agreement, the school's Behaviour Code of Conduct and consistently demonstrate a high commitment to all aspects of school life. All students must embrace the school's core values of Respect, Connect, and Inspire.

Additional Cost

Excellence pillar programs incur an additional fee on top of the School Resource fee. Payment of the Excellence pillar program fees is split into two invoices due at the start of Semester 1 and again at the start of Semester 2. The fee must be paid BEFORE a student commences in an Excellence pillar program and each subsequent semester and year that the student is part of the program.

Position notification will be delivered via email.
