

HEALTH

Elective Learning Area

Course Outline

Health uses an inquiry approach informed by the critical analysis of health information to investigate sustainable health change at personal, peer, family and community levels. Students define and understand broad health topics, which they reframe into specific contextualised health issues for further investigation. Each term a different health issue is studied

Pathways

Year 11 Health Education

Studying Health can lead to further education and employment in the fields of health science, public health, health education, allied health, nursing and medical professions.

Structure

Areas of study	Core topics
Term 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Family Health (Nutrition)
Term 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Peer Health (Mental Health)
Term 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Community Health (Road Safety)
Term 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Peer Health (Resilience)

Assessment

Term 1 Examination 25%

Term 2 Extended Response 25%

Term 3 Action Research Report 25%

Term 4 Written – short response project 25%

The results from each of the assessments are added together to provide a subject score out of 100.

Additional Costs

NIL unless excursions are arranged