The Certificate II in Sport and Recreation will set you up to make a difference in your community. You can start working as a community coach or recreation assistant. You'll also be able to assist at community recreation centres, outdoor sporting grounds and aquatic centres.

The course includes general coaching units and fundamental motor coaching skills, so you can confidently start your sport coaching career. Our experienced instructors will teach you how to apply the right skills and knowledge to a basic sport and recreation session.

The Certificate III in Fitness is the minimum requirement for anyone looking to work as a gym instructor across Australia, with graduates also finding work as fitness instructors and group exercise instructors.

If you have a passion for health and fitness, and a desire to really make a difference in people's lives, then this course is for you. This course is perfect for anyone looking to launch a new career in the growing fitness industry, and those seeking to learn about the latest techniques for helping others to reach their fitness goals.
